Tri-City Regional Chamber To Host 5th Annual Dinner

Tri-Cities, WA – The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce will host the 5th Annual Dinner and Awards program on Wednesday, March 24th at 5:30 pm inside the Three Rivers Convention Center.

Each year during the event, the Chamber recognizes outstanding members and their achievements. In addition, a new video, produced by KNDU-TV, will be featured. It will be used to launch a branding campaign to address the value of the Chamber in the Tri-Cities. The Chamber, comprised of 1,300 members, not only represents a wide variety of businesses, but also plays a vital role in the Tri-Cities economy. The Annual Dinner is an event that provides members and the community an opportunity to celebrate accomplishments, congratulate awards winners and connect with fellow Chamber members.

This year, the keynote speaker is Pat McGaughey, presenting "High Performance in Today's Economy." McGaughey brings 30 years of experience in broadcasting, business association management and medical administration while serving as a business consultant. McGaughey is an instructor for the United States Chamber of Commerce Institute for Organization Management at the Universities of Arizona, Georgia, Villanova, Wisconsin and Loyola Marymount in Los Angeles. He has served as President of the Northwest Chamber Leaders Conference, and as President of the Idaho Association of Chambers of Commerce. He is an honored recipient of the "Rotary International Paul Harris Fellowship Award", and he received the mayoral "Key to The City" for his outstanding community service in The Dalles, Oregon.

The Platinum sponsor of the event is Washington River Protection Solutions as well as contributing sponsors: KGH Medical Mall, Wildhorse Resort and Casino, Kadlec Regional Medical Center, Numerica Credit Union, Port of Kennewick, Archibald's, Three Rivers Convention Center, KNDA TV, Terra Blanca, Esprit, Breshears Photography and Wendy and Friends.

Tickets are $50 per person or $400 per table and may be purchased thru the Chamber. Reservations deadline is March 17. Tickets are available thru the Chamber at 509.736.0501, for further details visit us online info@tricityregionalchamber.com.
