River of Fire Festival Returns for 25th Year

Tri-Cities, WA – The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce invites you to the 25th Annual River of Fire Festival, presented by Hapo Community Credit Union, scheduled to take place July 4th in Columbia Park - Kennewick, Washington.

This year's festival features a variety of entertainment for all age goers. The day long festivities begin at 12pm at the Wildhorse stage featuring local musicians performing until dark when the fireworks show will take place on the Tidewater Barge positioned near the Blue Bridge on the Columbia River. Additionally, the Kid's Zone, sponsored by AgriNorthwest, opens its five bounce houses free of charge for children under the age of 12. Vendors will be on-site to provide food and non-alcohol beverages. Alcoholic beverages and personal fireworks are prohibited in Columbia Park.

"The Chamber is proud to host this family friendly event and provide a safe environment for the members of our community on the Fourth of July," stated Lori Mattson, President and CEO of the Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce.

The cost to attend this year's event is $7.00 per car load; payable at the park entrance. For more information regarding the River of Fire Festival, including the full entertainment line-up, call 509.736.0510 or go to www.tricityregionalchamber.com.
